The SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD is published every Wednesday and Saturday morning, at $1.50 a year, in advance; single copies, 5 cents. THE CHICAGO Times shows that in the late Vermont election, where the stalwarts boasted of their wonderful gains, the republicans gained one vote in twenty-two over the vote of 1876, and the democrats gained only one in 2,555. But live gains throughout the country would give Hancock 4,236,830 and Garfield 4,216,625, or a popular majority for the democratic candidate of 70,194. In New York Hancock would get 532,149 and Garfield 510,537. But nobody has the faintest idea that any other state, north or south, will show anything like the republican gains in Vermont. Hancock's popular majority will exceed that of Tilden, and his electoral votes will outnumber Tilden's by a dozen or more.

THE TELEGRAPH press agent in Montana did not deem it of sufficient importance to let the country know that Hon. Martin Maginnis had been re-nominated for delegate to Congress from that territory. The democratic convention was held on the 8th inst., when Maginnis was unanimously nominated on the first ballot. The action cannot be considered otherwise than as a high compliment to the gentleman himself, as well as indicating the possession of wisdom by the Montana democrats. Mr. Maginnis has already served four terms, and his re-nomination features a fifth, as no other candidate would stand the slightest chance of election as against him. The gentleman is among the ablest and most active of the territorial delegates, and has been instrumental in securing the passage of some good laws for the territory. He holds a large influence in the House of Representatives, and has served his constituents honestly and ably. It is not improbable that Mr. Maginnis will go from delegates to senator as it is likely Montana will be a state by the time his coming term expires.

BULLY BLAINE'S charge that the democrats spent money freely in Maine is worthy of the demagogue who made it. The democrats spent money in Maine, but not so much as the republicans, who have poured thousands into the state since the opening of the campaign. It was only a short time ago that a complaint came from the republican national committee that Maine was costing entirely too much. It was said that the extravagance in Maine would lessen the funds that had been intended for other states, and Mr. Blaine himself has been called in question for his demands for more money. It is known and acknowledged that money is used for political purposes everywhere. The parties spend all they can afford to risk, and they try to get it where it will do the most good. If the republicans do not have a corruption fund, why do they assess every office-holder, from cabinet ministers down to petty clerks in the department? Senator Blaine exhibits the pot-house politician, the true demagogue, when he tries to make a point against the democrats by charging them with the use of money for election purposes.

THE LATER returns from the Maine election somewhat change the results as first telegraphed, but the fact that it has been a democratic, or anti-republican triumph cannot be overcome. It seems that the congressional delegation remains as it is—two greenbackers and three republicans. The governor is still in doubt, with the chances favoring the fusionist, Flaxell. It is admitted that he has a clear majority over Davis, but it has suddenly been discovered by the republicans that the constitutional amendment allowing the governor to be chosen by the highest vote instead of making it necessary for him to obtain a majority of the total vote polled, would be retroactive and therefore unconstitutional were it to go into force in this instance. If the plurality had been in favor of Davis the retroactive question would never have been thought of. It is possible that the new interpretation put upon the constitutional amendment, should it be held good, as it doubtless will be—the Maine court having shown last year that it is republican and decidedly partisan—will throw the election into the legislature. That body having a republican majority, of course Davis would be chosen governor, notwithstanding Flaxell is the choice of the people. But the Maine election will nevertheless prove a highly satisfactory victory for the democrats. Without a faint idea of carrying the state, they have actually cast more votes than two republicans. The people of the state have declared with emphasis that they want a change, and have asserted that they are not afraid of the sometimes tradable about "rebel yell," southern war claims, and so on, that forms so large an element of the republican war cry. If still old New Englanders express themselves so much opposed to radical rule, what may be expected from the more liberal-minded people of the west? The Maine triumph must encourage the voters of Indiana, Ohio and other doubtful states, to speak freely and without fear. It makes democratic victory in Indiana next month a certainty, and insures the election of a democratic president.

MISS JENNIE FLOOD, the daughter of the California millionaire, has "hooked" U. S. Grant, jr., the son of the general. The story goes that some weeks ago young Ulysses went to California to visit his sweetheart, and on his arrival in San Francisco learned that the young lady was with a party of friends up in the Sierras. Instead of at once repairing to her, as a dutiful lover would have done, he stayed in the city having a nice time in what is described as "a flirtation with some fair but not over nice young damsel." When Miss Flood heard of his going-on, she promptly informed him that he might keep it up perpetually, for she wanted nothing more to do with him. A telegram in this morning's HERALD says Miss Flood's brother has just put "a head on" a San Francisco editor who has been publishing something about the breaking of the engagement. The next little wedding gift of $5,000,000 was to come from Miss Flood's father. It may be that Ulysses, Jan., thinks he is smart enough to get along without the money, but in view of the high stakes played for, he should have been more cautious, at least until after marriage.

THE EMIGRATION from Canada to the United States has become so formidable as to cause the church to interfere to check it. Lord Beaconsfield's pretty description of the country and his promise that the rush across the line would be from this side, are daily proven to be the foolish, reckless utterances of an uneducated statesman.

IN LONDON, on Wednesday, bar silver was quoted at 62 1/2 pence.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Reds duelling.

Santa Fe, N. M., 15.—The News, to-morrow, publishes an account of a duel between a Ute Indian and a Navajo, which took place last Thursday. A few friends of the Indians were present. The Ute was killed and the Navajo seriously injured. Knives were the weapons used. The duel was caused by both Indians wanting to marry the same girl.

Virginia Democratic Committee.

Richmond, 14.—The regular conservative and readjuster state committee met separately, to-day, with the view of arranging their differences and to insure the electoral vote of the state for the democratic nominee for president. The conservative committee appointed a sub-committee to draw up a plan of compromise to be submitted to the legislature.

Wild Weaver.

Elmira, N. Y., 15.—Gen. Weaver was in Elmira to-day, and addressed two immense greenback meetings. Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, greenback candidate for Congress, presided and made a characteristic speech. Gen. Weaver spoke for two hours in the open air in the afternoon, mainly on the question of finance, and incidentally on the ballot box frauds in the south, whereby he said the greenbackers had been rebuffed of victory.

A Keyward President.

Havana, 15.—Rev. Mr. Merino, newly elected president, took charge of the government of Santo Domingo September 1st. In his inaugural address, referring to the foreign relations, the president declares that he will endeavor to enter into as intimate a union as possible with the Spanish and American republics, and will exert all his power to attain such union. Regarding the relations with the Vatican, he says that as president he will especially seek to be the head of the people which, professing the most liberal doctrines, considers it at the same time its highest glory to be essentially Catholic and having constantly lived in union, the church has ever been in the forefront of profound respect adhered to the sovereign pontiff. No allusion is made to the United States.

The Indian Census.

Washington, 15.—The work of taking the census of the Indians of the United States will be commenced on October 1st, under the supervision of Major John W. Powell, director of the bureau of ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution, assisted by Col. Garrick Mallory, R. L. Packard, H. W. Henshaw, H. D. Hinson and Clay Macaulay. The country has been subdivided into four divisions, and a special agent assigned to superintend the work in each of them. Clay Macaulay has been assigned the task of taking the census of all the scattered Indian tribes located in the states east of the Mississippi River, Louisiana and Texas. Packard has been assigned the division which includes the Indian Territory, New Mexico and Arizona. Henshaw, the states of California, Nevada, Oregon, Colorado, and Wyoming. Montana, Idaho, Utah and Washington Territories. Hinson, all of Dakota, and Sioux Indians found in the states of Minnesota, Nebraska and Montana Territory. Mallory will remain at Washington and superintend the work of the special agents. The census will include the enumeration of Indians by approximate age. The vital statistics will be collected by the United States surgeons located on the different reservations. Educational statistics will be collected by government teachers, and the industrial statistics will be gathered by the special agents. It is intended to have the Indian agents at the six different agencies throughout the country take a census under the immediate supervision of the special agents. Powell estimates that more than three-fifths of the Indians are on the reservations engaged in industrial pursuits and with some, he apprehends no trouble in taking the census. Nearly two-fifths of the Indians do not habitually remain on the reservations, but most of them report periodically at the agency, so that eventually an accurate enumeration of these roaming tribes can be obtained. In the case of the few Indians who do not report to the agencies, men will be selected to visit them in their camps and obtain the desired information. The work will necessarily be slow, and six months will probably elapse before it is completed.

POLITICAL.

Platforms, Nominations, Arrangements and Like Matters.

Worcester, 14.—The platform declares both parties are to be judged by their acts and that the republicans carry a comparison of its measures with those attempted or accomplished by the democratic party; desires peace and expresses willingness to concede anything, save principle, to accomplish the work of creating harmonious feeling between the sections; also hopes that political rights will be maintained throughout the south at no distant day, which cannot be, however, while the negro intimidates or betrays the rights of suffrage and counted out; and Massachusetts will speak an indignant protest against such an outrage; invokes the country to do the same and urge government to assert its protective power and insure peaceful elections; congratulates the party and the country upon the republican measure of resumption, which had been accomplished despite democratic opposition. It is, therefore, to the republican party alone that the friends of a currency based upon the value of gold coin can look for a repeal or a modification of the silver coinage laws, passed chiefly by democratic votes after the veto of a republican President. They express belief that the present coinage of silver will eventually expel gold from the country and thus injure trade and commerce; urge a suspension of coinage until the relation between gold and silver is established by the leading commercial countries; express gratification at the establishment of a standard by which officials are judged and tested. The platform has a strong civil service plank; arraigns the democracy for its threats and abuses of power, and has a plank highly complimentary to President Hayes for his pure administration and steadfast republicanism; declares its hearty and faithful support to Garfield and Arthur, and pays Garfield a warm tribute as a man, a soldier and a statesman.

Concord, N. H., 15.—The resolutions adopted endorse the Cincinnati nominees; pledge adherence to Hancock and English, declare that the state shall be redeemed, and that Frank Jones, the gubernatorial candidate, is a worthy and true man. Adjourned.

St. Louis, 15.—The temporary organization was made permanent. The resolutions present nothing remarkable new, but are in line with the platform of the party to unity; arraign the democrats for their frauds in the administration of the state, and for redistricting the state, so that it should be misrepresented in Congress. The resolutions endorse Governor, D. P. Dyer; lieutenant-governor, Milo Blair; secretary of state, J. C. Broadwell; auditor, L. A. Thomas; treasurer, W. Q. Dallinger; supreme judge, J. C. Carter; register of lands, Adam Thier; railroad commissioner, Howard Barnes, colored. Adjourned.

Trenton, N. J., 14.—The republicans of the Fifth District have re-nominated George M. Robeson.

Baltimore, 14.—The republicans of the Fifth Congressional District nominated W. B. Wilmer. Milwaukee, 14.—The democrats of the Eighth District, to-day, nominated W. C. Silverthorn for Congress. Little Rock, 14.—The democrats of the Third District have re-nominated J. E. Cravens for Congress.

Newly complete returns give Churchill, democratic candidate for governor, 62,000 majority.

Connellsville, 15.—The republicans of the Eighth District nominated R. Pencival for Congress.

Concord, N. H., 15.—As result of the arrangements effected to-day between leaders of the democratic party, J. W. Sandborn, Sullivan and Bingham have been nominated for Congress in the First, Second and Third Districts.

San Francisco, 15.—A dispatch from Olympia, Washington Territory, says the democratic territorial convention nominated Thomas Burke of Seattle for Congress.

JUDGE LYNCH.

Cool Work by a Masked Mob.

Nashville, Tenn., 14.—Late advices from Springfield state that the crowd who forced the jail there this morning were disguised with white handkerchiefs across their faces, and entered the town along the Cedar Hill at 1 o'clock. They rode quickly to the jail and dismounted. Failing to find the sheriff to obtain the keys, they broke in the door with sledge hammers. The first cell reached was occupied by two men, two months previous, had shot a young lady because she refused to marry him. This prisoner retreated behind the door and fought the mob with the leg of a chair. He was shot in the leg, severed an artery and, falling, was dragged outside and one or two more shot fired into his body, which killed him. The crowd then secured Jack Bell and Archie Jamison, negroes, and a few days ago, charged with the murder of L. S. Laprade, who lived about seventeen miles from Springfield. They placed these two prisoners on horses, and with them left town by the same road they entered. They halted seven miles from Springfield and hanged the two negroes on dogwood trees, about seventy-five yards apart. At 7 o'clock this evening, a person passing along the road and served the corpse swinging and at once notified the neighbors. In intelligence soon reached Springfield, and the coroner, accompanied by a number of citizens, proceeded to the spot, cut down the bodies and held an inquest. They placed the corpses in a wagon and drove back to the town. The bodies were then taken in charge by the undertaker. The five others accused of complicity in Laprade's murder, are under guard at Saddle-ville. One of them, named Higgins, made a confession implicating others and giving sickening details of the torture of Laprade to make him reveal the place where his money was kept. The excitement at Saddle-ville is very great and the lynching of the prisoners, to-night, is apprehended.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Lowering the Fusion Majority with Republican Persistence.

Augusta, Me., 15.—Results of the legislative session—Republicans 21, fusionists 10; house, republicans 22, fusion 67; with two tied.

Chicago, 15.—After Oscar's Washington: Commissioner Rynn returned from Maine to-day. He says the democratic and greenback success was the result of coercion of the former, within the last week before the election under pressure from their leaders, to vote the fusion ticket which, up to that time they manifested little inclination to do. He spoke last night at a meeting at Bridgeport, Connecticut, and said that the result in Maine was understood there to be local contest and had little effect upon the spirits of either party.

Col. Leo Crandall, secretary of the national greenback party, writes as follows to him:

W. A. Wallace, Chairman of the Democratic Committee:

Dear Sir—In behalf of the national greenback labor party, permit me to express my gratification at the unopposed and magnificent success of the victory which our party has gained over the hard money oligarchy in the State of Maine, and to say that it shall ever remain engraved upon our memories as one of the most glorious achievements of the gallant but retiring democratic party.

LEE CRANDALL, Sec'y National Committee.

Portland, Me., 15.—Four hundred and five towns gave Davis 69,912; Planted 68,571, scattering 322. Davis' plurality, 1,341. The same towns last year gave Davis 66,103, Smith 55,619, Garfield 16,806, scattering 262. The ninety-eight towns to hear from gave last year Davis 3,010, fusion 4,355, a fusion plurality of 1,379. Deduct Davis' plurality now in and Planted has left 38 plurality. The Senate at last accounts stands: Republicans 23, fusionists 10, democrats 22, fusionists 7. Complete returns from the First District insure Davis' election by about 100 majority. The constitutional amendments are probably carried.

Mining Suit Decided.

San Francisco, 15.—A dispatch from Eureka, Nevada, says: The district court has decided the case of the Richard Mining Company against the Albion Company in favor of the latter. The decision sustains the lease theory decided by the United States circuit court in the Eureka Consolidated vs. Richmond case.

The Dulcinea Cession Row.

Regina, 15.—The Albanians continue resolutely to oppose the cession of Dulcinea, and are beginning to make noise. It is asserted they have resolved to kill Rza Pasha, who is at Kalakol with only 1,500 men. The Albanians have forwarded a fresh threatening address to the Porte.

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER.

—THE—

HERALD.

SALT LAKE

DAILY HERALD.

The remarkable success of the paper in the past, as manifested by its large and steadily growing subscription list, its increasing advertising patronage and the expressions of good will towards the journal which grew out of all quarters, convince the publishers that they are doing what they set out to do—namely, furnish a newspaper that the people would like, and therefore support. The HERALD, as in the past, will be the people's paper. Independent in a political sense, it will always be found on the side of the people, uttering on questions affecting the rights of the masses; battling for local self-government and the largest liberty to individuals consistent with public good; laboring for a pure, honest and economical administration of government; treating public matters dispassionately and employing language calculated to enlighten, rather than to inflame; and working for peace and the development of the resources of the territory, instead of trying to create strife and retard progress. With our increased facilities for gathering news, both by telegraph and mail, the employment of a larger number of correspondents in different sections of the country, and the better arrangement of all the many details of the establishment, we confidently promise to make the SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD a better paper than ever.

SALT LAKE

SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD

This valuable and popular edition of the HERALD will continue to make its appearance twice a week during the year, and the same degree of progress and improvement that marks the Daily will be seen in its columns. No better newspaper can be found in the west for people who are not blessed with daily mail facilities, than the SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD. It contains all the news, domestic and foreign, in a condensed and readable form. The design has been to make it combine the distinguishing characteristics of a commercial and home journal, and we believe that this has been successfully carried out. The SEMI-WEEKLY has certainly met with unexpectedly great favor at the hands of the people.

SALT LAKE

WEEKLY HERALD

The demand for a WEEKLY HERALD has been pressing during the past two or three years. The aim of the publishers will be to furnish a paper for those people who live of the main lines of travel and who are so accommodated with mail service often than once a week; to provide a newspaper for those who have only one day a week of leisure to devote to the pleasant and profitable employment of reading; to supply a suitable edition of the HERALD for sending abroad—a paper that shall faithfully and honestly represent this great and growing territory, with its many and important industries and its thrifty, enterprising people; to make a paper for the home circle and family circle, one that shall contain the news, and at the same time combine the essential elements of a literary, educational and industrial journal. In fact, our aim will be to make the WEEKLY HERALD a welcome visitor to the home, where it will be found a constant fund of instruction, entertainment and profit to all members of the family. Besides the leading characteristics of the Daily, the Weekly will contain matter specially for the agriculturist, the gardener, the stock-raiser, the mechanic, the kitchen and the household generally, and an important feature of its columns will be the well-chosen, entertaining and moral literature, also reports of the Tabernacle discourses. Nothing will be admitted to its columns that has not first been carefully prepared and revised.
